

SPECIAL SALONE DEL MOBILE 2011

The premier Italian show for furniture and interior design was held recently in Milan. Our correspondent in Italy, Catherine Maalouf, detects the most innovative and eye catching items seen at 'Salone del Mobile 2011.'

Exclusive Selection following the Salon Del Mobile 2011

'SUNDIAL' BY NENDO FOR KARTEL
A lightweight and compact size library that consists of four shelves and a series of vertical dividers that allow it to create an original play of light and shade.
www.kartell.com

'NEW RETRO' BY FABRIZIO BATONI FOR DOMITALIA
A new technology has allowed DOMITALIA to produce two colors in a chair from a single mold with the injection of two overlapping colors, all made of recyclable polycarbonate.
www.domitalia.it

'MOON' BY TOKUJIN YOSHIOKA FOR MOROSO
Tokujin Yoshioka's new creation for MOROSO is an armchair called MOON because it reflects light generating visual movements. Available in polyethylene or fabric-upholstered polyurethane.
www.moroso.it

'MADEMOISELLES' DESIGN BY NOTO MARCO GUAZZINI + TSUKASA GOTO FOR OFFICINANOVE
The collection consists of three elements that can be used as a seat, shelf or towel hanger. The material is steel. As for the name, the designer was inspired by the sinuous movements of classical dancers.
www.officinanove.it

'SPLASH' BY KARIM RASHID FOR TONELLI DESIGN
A whole new shape for an all glass low coffee table with a board that resembles spilled water. The base is a magazine holder that comes in three colors: extra clear, white lacquered and smoked glass.
www.tonellidesign.it

