

YD

YACHT DECOR

Exclusive

Classic, now iconic pieces, limited re-editions, new furnishings with a contemporary appeal. There's no limit when it comes to fitting out your yacht. And as an extra touch, a few splashes of violet, the trend for this Amethyst issue of The One Yacht and Design

by Marta Bernasconi

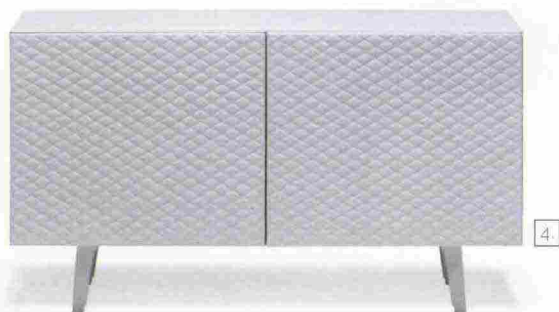

1. Painted metal table lamp from the Metropolitan collection, which also includes a table, bookcase and pendant light. By Boffetto

2. B&W Signs is a capsule collection by Paola Navone for Frette. Fine white cotton bedlinen with black embroidery. On sale exclusively online at frette.com

3. A decisive yet welcoming form for the Elle armchair by Valentini. Steel revolving base, iron framework and removable fabric or fixed leather upholstery

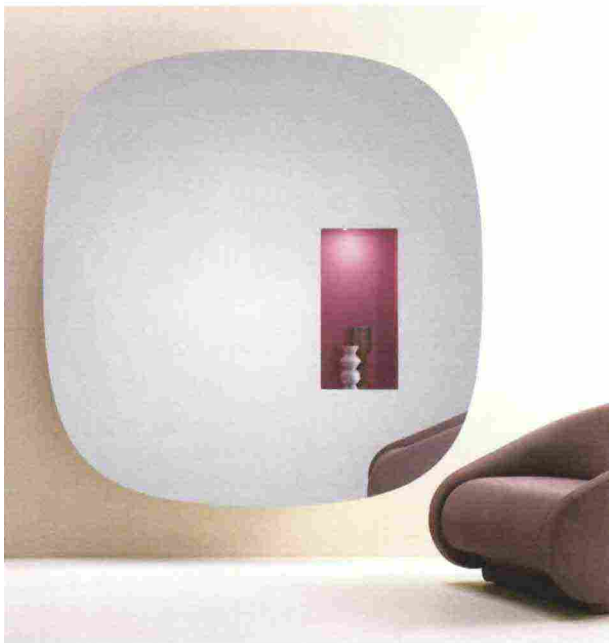

4. Absolut wooden sideboard with two or three doors. Upholstered in quilted leather, available in several colours. Steel base, frosted glass top. By Cattelan Italia

8. Polygonal is a ceiling light comprising illuminated pentagonal and hexagonal rings, also available in the new Silver Black finish. It expresses the Henge brand's concept of refined luxury

8.

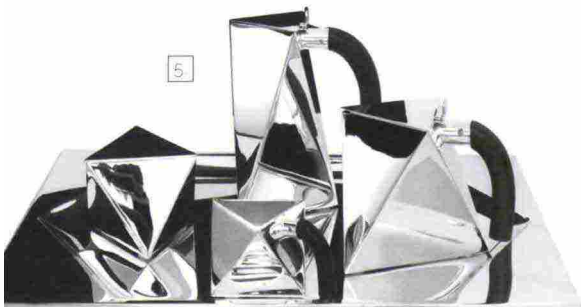

7.

6. With Bubble, Roche Bobois expresses the idea of a wonderfully soft, warm comfort. The sofa has a wooden frame and capitonné upholstery in a special technical fabric.

7. Karim Rashid is the designer of Aperture, a wall mirror with open compartment, available in pink, white and black, illuminated by movement-controlled LED lights. By Tonelli design

5. De Vecchi Milano 1935 is a reinterpretation of the Prisma collection, created in 1935. Silver tea or coffee service with a strong design influence

5.

6.